Walking for wisdom

The connect between walking and wisdom is likely to be questioned, given the wide meaning accepted for the latter term by the cognoscenti. To prepare the ground for the narrative in this column, it is proposed to confine its meaning to 'proper' functioning of the human brain, particularly on occasions of inappropriately reacting to situations resulting in undesirable consequences, that may not need elaboration. Having briefly cleared the scope of wisdom as a mark of sound brain, one may consider it superfluous to expand on the other term of this column, namely walking, either as a physical exercise strongly recommended by both the medical practitioners and others, including senior citizens who must have walked enough to circumnavigate the earth several times on foot in their extended lifetime. An idiom in the English language saying 'Walk a mile after supper, rest a while after dinner (heavy meal)' which used to be heard before in the circle of fitness buffs, doesn't seem to be in circulation nowadays, given the cluttering of roads, streets and lanes by automobiles of all descriptions.

The land's spiritual philosophers of a distant past are known to have walked long distances across the country, among whom Adi Shankara, who established seats of learning while propagating Sanaatana Dharma during eighth century stands out. Would they have favoured commuting by means of transport commonly used in our days in preference to walking? is a question that may loom large in the minds of some. They might have.

A veteran cardiologist of the old school of medical practice was heard telling his patients that they can walk to the Heaven as it were, obviously to make an impression. While walking to reach places was a matter of no choice in times before affordable motorised vehicles came on the scene, people of nearly the entire cross section of society in urban spaces can be seen using their two-wheelers and cars to reach public parks ostensibly for a health walk. Parks in Mysuru are currently witnessing hundreds of citizens jostling on crowded tracks. The rustics too are no longer walking to reach the cities for both business of selling their produce and also to have a taste of city life. Returning to the subject of this column, one is prompted to raise the issue of the differential brain functioning of an individual who walks compulsorily compared to one who commutes by transport for whatever reason.

Going by the result of a recent study by researchers at Liverpool John Moores University in England, published in the Journal of Applied Physiology, even a two-minute break from sitting every half-hour can help long-term brain health, apart from benefit to the heart. In sum, if brain is not healthy, the question of wisdom doesn't arise.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

While Imran Khan has been measured in his references to India after he emerged as the front-runner to be the next Prime Minister, one has to watch out for statements and actions from two 'unguided missiles'. Shireen Mazari, slated to be the Defence Minister, is on record of having promised to set Indian urban centres on fire, with nuclear attacks. Former Foreign Minister Shah Mehmood Qureshi was not exactly restrained in his barbed comments after the 26/11 terror strike by the Lashkar-e-Taiba. India would have to be careful before rushing in with any ill-advised initiatives, before getting a realistic appraisal of ground realities in Pakistan. —In The New Sunday Express

Man turns his legs 180 degrees and walks backward

Michigan: 57-year-old Moses Lanham from Michigan, is known as 'Mr. Plastic' for his unusual ability to turn his legs along with his knees 180 degrees and walk backward.

Moses discovered his superhuman ability when he was only 14-years-old. He was climbing a rope in gym class when he lost his grip and crashed to the floor, landing awkwardly. At first, he thought something was dislocated, but he soon realised that he could easily turn his lower legs 180 degrees and back again without experiencing any pain. Medical tests revealed that he was able to do this thanks to of double cartilage in his hips, knees and ankles.

He has been using this gift to freak people out ever since. This unusual ability has helped Moses Lanham break two world records, one of which he still holds.

Man builds UFO landing port as aliens order

New Hampshire: Julie Baker, an enterpr Cachi: Werner Jaisli, a Swiss man in 2008, started building a giant, star-shaped 'ovniport' – a UFO landing spot – in an Argentinian desert, because aliens telepathically ordered him to.

It's not clear exactly when Werner Jaisli arrived in Cachi, a small town in the Argentinian province of Salta, but it's not hard to figure out what drew him to this place. The deserts of Salta have become famous among UFO enthusiasts around the globe, after several sightings of unidentified flying objects and other unexplained phenomena were reported in the area over the last few decades. On the night of November 24, 2008, Jaisli himself was allegedly contacted by aliens who gave him specific instructions on how to build a UFO landing port, aka 'ovniport'.

Fill the pits on Irwin Road

Sir,

There are nearly a dozen drainage pits or potholes on Irwin Road starting from sub-urban bus stand to Government Ayurveda College Circle including at Nehru Circle.

Almost all the manhole pits are not levelled on par with the surface of the road (see photos). These are causing inconvenience to all the road users and posing a threat of skidding of two-wheelers and cycles. Getting back pain is sure if one travels on two-wheeler regularly on this road.

These pits are also slowing down the traffic movement and hampering the smooth movement of the vehicles. With increased traffic by manifolds during Dasara period, which is fast approaching, vehicle movement may slow down further causing traffic snarls on this stretch.

As the road widening of this stretch was shelved, Mysore City Corporation (MCC) may take up at least repair jobs to fill the potholes and raise the manholes to road level to enable smooth movement of vehicles.

Dialysis units at K.R. Hospital turning away patients

Mysuru, Aug.25 (RK,MTY & BCT)- The dialysis units at the State-owned K.R. Hospital in city has been turning away hundreds of patients with kidney ailments daily. Reason: Heavy rush, non-functional machines and shortage of machines.

Patients coming to the hospital from as far as Malavalli near Mandya are either returning back without treatment or are waiting in lodges for their turn to come. K.R. Hospital caters to the need of patients from Mysuru, Mandya, Hunsur, H.D. Kote and even the far-flung Chamarajanagar.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Shivaswamy, a resident of Malavalli, said that he has been doing the rounds of K.R. Hospital since the last two years for dialysis of his 15-year-old son. "Since the last 10 days, I have not been able to take my son for dialysis as the units are shut there. On an average, over 50 patients come to the hospital daily for dialysis and they are callously being turned away as most of the units are non-functional," he said.

He said that he had come to Mysuru all the way from Malavalli to get his son treated. "I spent money as lodging charges and when I questioned the nurses and the people who manage the dialysis units, they asked me to go to Mandya Institute of Medical Sciences and get my son treated there," he alleged.

Shivaswamy said that his family depends on the marketing job he does. "I have applied leave and am staying in Mysuru for my son. I cannot afford the treatment costs at private hospitals," he said and added that patients are being sent to certain private hospitals where they charge at least Rs.5,000 to Rs.8,000 for a dialysis session.

When SOM did a reality check on the dialysis units at K.R. Hospital, there were nine non-functional dialysis units there. The machines are not working since a couple of days and there is a shortage of machines. Due to this shortage, there is excessive pressure on the existing machines.

To manage the rush, the hospital authorities are making batches of outpatients and are issuing tokens so that the patients can come on that day for dialysis. However, there is no issue in the inpatients section. "We are waiting for a few technicians and engineers to repair the dialysis units. We are giving tokens to the patients to handle the crowd," a doctor said while denying that patients are being sent to private hospitals.

> To manage the rush, the hospital authorities are making batches of outpatients and are issuing tokens so that the patients can come on that day for dialysis. However, there is no issue in the inpatients section.

Dr. Srinivas, Medical Superintendent, K.R. Hospital, told SOM that over 10 new dialysis machines have arrived and the disruption in the service was caused due to installation problems of these new machines.

"We have set up these machines at Urology and Nephrology Department and special care will be taken to treat the patients. This is a minor hiccup that is caused by heavy rush as we receive over 50 patients who need dialysis," he said. The problem will be resolved in one or two days till the new machines are installed, he added.

Elusive tiger worries villagers in Hunsur

Forest staff on combing operation. Picture alongside shows pug marks.

Hunsur, Aug.25 (Raghu&US)- A week-long efforts by Forest Department staff to trap an elusive tiger near K.G. Habbanakuppe is yet to yield the result as the 'intelligent' tiger seems to be not lured by the goat kept as a bait in the cage but continue to roam in the said village looking for another prey.

The tiger has confirmed its presence by attacking a cow at Tharagan Estate in the said village yesterday leaving the cow badly injured.

The cows, belonging to one T.M. Kaverappa, was grazing in the Estate when the tiger is said to have attacked the cow.

The cries of the panicked cow alerted the combing team of Forest Department who arrived on the spot and got the tiger chased away.

Tracking the pug marks of the elusive tiger, the Forest Department staff have begun the operation to trap the tiger from Aug.16. However, the elusive tiger has created panic among villagers living in K.G. Hebbanakuppe, Neralakuppe, Billenahosahalli and Chandanagiri. Forest officials have advised people not to walk through the Estate after 6 pm or leave their livestock for grazing.

Will Mysuru finally emerge?

By K. Sriram,
Jt. Secretary - CREDAI

Whenever we try to analyse the growth of our city, we encounter several factors that have impacted its growth. The growth of a city depends on its ability to create employment and it usually comes from tourism, industry, services, educational institutions etc. Connectivity has been one of the biggest bug bears impacting our growth. In the tourism industry, the meetings, incentives, conferences and exhibitions (MICE) sector is growing at a healthy pace and our city is losing out on a lot of this business due to lack of proper connectivity. Same is the story with inbound international tourist groups.

K. Sriram

Domestic tourists are also habituated to having a direct air-link to their destination and avoid destinations that have a long tiring road journey. Entrepreneurs wanting to set up shop here will first look at accessibility and many big corporates have for long rued the lack of proper connectivity to our city and have been averse to invest here. Many entrepreneurs are also impacted by the lack of skilled and disciplined man power in our city.

Rail connectivity: The Railways in our country is on a booster dose of testosterone and is looking at achieving efficiencies by employing a corporate approach to governance. The electrification and double lining of Bengaluru-Mysuru line is complete and trains have been speeded up. We have nineteen pairs of trains a day connecting the two cities. We need more trains that can make the journey between the cities under two hours.

Ten-lane Highway: Completion of four-lane Bengaluru-Mysuru Highway in 2004 saw the first real spike in development of our city by creating a fast corridor. This corridor is now choking with traffic and the situation is made worse by the absence of bypass roads for towns enroute. Shortly work is going to take off on a six-lane, access controlled expressway that will be flanked by a free access two-lane service road on either side to make it a ten-lane road. This Highway bypasses all the major towns.

UDAN scheme: Air connectivity has always been our biggest bugbear but thanks to the UDAN scheme by the Central government, we now have daily flights that are running to full capacity. Possibilities of a few more flights look very bright and it should be in place very soon. Thanks to the aggressive and forward thinking Union government, air connectivity to tier two and three cities are growing at an amazing pace. Hubballi and Mysuru were in a similar situation in 2017, with zero flight connectivity. Today Hubballi has flights to Bengaluru, Mumbai, Ahmedabad, New Delhi, Hyderabad, Chennai, Kochi and Goa served by Airbus and ATR fleets.

Just imagine if something like this happens to Mysuru, it will turn the economy of the city. Why just Hubballi even Belagaavi that is just an hour away by road from Hubballi has started receiving Airbus and Boeing flights. Looking at these examples, Mysuru that is a tedious four hours away from Bangalore Airport surely deserves enhanced connectivity.

Is Mysore prepared to take development?

A Mysurean is always aghast at the situation in our State capital. It has all the attributes of a failed city. When we speak of big development in Mysuru, it brings us horrific images of Indian cities that have been bitten by the reckless and greedy disease masquerading as development. We at Mysuru should look at development that will be sustainable in the long run.

We have excellent infrastructure in place with excellent broad roads, good water supply and drainage facilities. Mysuru has slipped on many of the surveys regarding, cleanliness, ease of living etc. Having studied the situation in many Indian cities that have been selected as part of the smart city mission, our city is far ahead of the others on all counts.

We have seen the arrival of many new employment generating industries in city over the last 12 months and we are on the verge of taming the vital connectivity conundrum that has for long impeded our growth. The huge national focus on 'Make in India' promises to make India with its demographic advantage the factory of the world and Mysuru is poised to get a decent chunk of this. The tourism industry is showing healthy growth and we are fast emerging as an education hub. Hence the growth of this city is certain but let us all dedicate ourselves to ensure that it will be a planned and sustainable growth.

Owaisi emphasises on Constitutional propriety

Mysuru, Aug.25 (SPN&NNN)- The only good fortune that the Muslim Community enjoyed by voting the Congress since the last 70 years is the photo opportunity with Nehru family. Leaving this aside, the community has not benefited in any way either educationally or economically, bitterly commented AIMIM (All India Majlis-e-Ittehadul Muslimeen) President, Member of Parliament and Barrister Asaduddin Owaisi.

He was addressing a public meeting at the Bannimantap HUDCO Layout Main Road while canvassing for the Mysuru City Corporation Ward No.8 AIMIM candidate Rafatulla Khan for the forthcoming Corporation elections, here yesterday.

The Supreme Court a few months ago had given a verdict after reviewing the 1989 SC-ST Atrocities Act. The whole Dalit community in the country came together and opposed this move. The Central Government had no choice but to interfere and retain the Act in its original form. The Muslim community has a lot to learn from this struggle. Even we should develop this instinct, Owaisi said.

The Lok Sabha passed the Bill on banning Triple Talaq and it has been tabled in Rajya Sabha. However, the Congress which garnered the Muslim votes for years is not speaking about it. I am the only person who is speaking on it. The future of lakhs of families in our community depends on this. If this Act comes into force in its present form, many of our youths have to go to jail, he said.

'Diamonds' of the Nation

The Central Government is taking advantage of the situation and trying to work against our interest. The media is projecting only Prime Minister Narendra Modi and AICC President Rahul Gandhi as the 'Diamonds' of the Nation. This kind of hero worship is not correct in a democratic country like ours as there are many other leaders too like us, he said. There are allegations by my opponents that I am helping the communal forces to win. But I am telling them that in the future they cannot deceive us. I will be making all efforts to get the rights to our community according to the Constitution, he countered his critics.

On Jinnah kind of politics

"A few of the Congress leaders are accusing me that I have started practising Mohammad Ali Jinnah kind of politics. His kind of politics came to an end in 1947 itself. We are not asking for a separate land in the country. On the contrary we are demanding our rights under the Constitution framed by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and not charity," he said.

Let the media play the record of my speeches and see for themselves. I have never crossed the limits of the Constitution in my speeches. If I have transgressed let an FIR be filed against me, he challenged.

In the name of Secularism, Congress has betrayed the Minorities, including the Dalits, Muslims and Tribal communities. Till now it has practised only Vote Bank politics and we will not become victims of such deceit anymore. For instance, though atrocities have occurred against our community in Kashmir, West Bengal, Andhra, UP and many other States, the Home Ministry of the respective States have not taken action taken against the perpetrators of the crimes.

The only appeal from me to the youth and the elders is to understand that earlier, except the Congress party there was no other choice. But now there are leaders in other parties too and they should be identified and nurtured to grow in politics. Otherwise, even in another hundred years, our community will not progress, he warned.

"I had contested Assembly elections in 1994-95 on AIMIM ticket and became a Legislator. Thereafter, I was elected as an MP. By voting for Ward No.8 candidate Rafatulla Khan, the Muslim community should encourage politicians to come up throughout the country, urged Owaisi.

Kumaraswamy is King... Owaisi also hopes to become King

Mysuru, Aug.25- "The 2018 Assembly elections in Karnataka had drawn the attention of the entire country. Every media had predicted that JD(S) is going to be the king-maker. I had then predicted that it will not be the king-maker but the king itself," recalled AIMIM President and MP Asaduddin Owaisi speaking at a public meeting in city yesterday.

"I was in an interaction session with the media at the national level regarding Karnataka election result. They kept cross questioning me and my only answer was in Karnataka, JD(S) State President H.D. Kumaraswamy will not be the king-maker but the king. After the final results were out, my words came true," he said.

"Hence, anything is possible in politics. If you people support us in the coming days our party could become the king-maker like JD(S) in a few States in the country. Also like them we could be kings ourselves," he said.

He called upon the youth to help the politicians from the Muslim community to be elected in a State where Tipu Sultan had ruled. However, he warned that all struggle should be within the framework of the Constitution.

I will become CM again with people's blessings: Siddharamaiah

Siddharamaiah

Hassan, Aug.25- Maintaining that he has the blessings of the people though he lost the May Assembly Polls, former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has asserted that he would become the Chief Minister again.

Speaking after inaugurating Veerabhadreshwara Swamy temple at Haadya Village in Holenarasipur Taluk of Hassan District yesterday, Siddharamaiah said that he was not the one who would run away from politics after losing an election.

Noting that politics is not stagnant water, he said that it is but natural that political scenario will change with the passage of time.

Reiterating that he has the blessings of the people, the former CM claimed that although the Congress had initiated several pro-people schemes, the party lost the elections because of false propaganda unleashed by vested interests.

Expressing concern over caste, money power and muscle power gaining upper hand in politics, the former CM observed that such a development was dangerous to democracy.

Maintaining that working as per our true conscience will be our real devotion to God, Siddharamaiah said that the blessings of the people was most important in becoming a leader.

Seers of various Mutts graced the occasion. Former Minister A. Manju, Hassan District Congress President Javagal Manjunath, Congress leader Bagur Manjegowda, Actor Pratham and others were present.

Mysuru Warriors all set for Battle Royale

FITNESS IS THE KEY: The boys are stretching their muscles in a fitness drill.

By V. Shourabh

Cricket is one such sport that unites the country as a whole. With KPL gaining popularity and fan base over the years, cricket is definitely running into the roots of Mysureans, thanks to Mysuru Warriors. But leagues like KPL provide the right kind of exposure and environment to youngsters to dream of making it to the next stage and in the long run make it to the Indian cricket team. Their skills and potentials are identified through this platform and they gain recognition.

The Seventh Edition of Karnataka Premier League (KPL) is underway and the tournament will be played in Mysuru from this afternoon (Aug. 25). Earlier, it was scheduled to begin in the royal city from Aug. 28. However, with Hubballi leg matches shifting to Mysuru following inclement weather conditions there, Mysuru cricket enthusiasts will get to watch additional matches including the Finals at SDNR Wadiyar Stadium in Manasagangothri on Sept.6.

Mysuru Warriors, with a blend of youngsters and experienced players, will be hoping to make SDNR Wadiyar Stadium their fortress this season and repeat the heroics of their First Edition in KPL where they emerged as Champions in 2014. The Warriors, clad in bright yellow armour, will be led by J. Suchith, who has been a part of the team since 2014. With an added advantage of the last leg of the tournament being played in Mysuru, the team will be backed by the home crowd, as the yellow sea will fill the stands of the stadium and root for the boys in yellow.

Ahead of the tournament, Star of Mysore caught up with the Mysuru Warriors Owner, Mentor, Coach and Captain for a brief chat. Now read on...

Coach RX Murali

All in all, we are a complete team: Coach RX Murali

RX Murali, Coach of Mysuru Warriors, says, "This year, the team looks complete in all perspectives compared to last year. We have a good unit covering the bowling, batting and fielding departments. We have good openers too. All in all, we are a complete team. KPL is the best thing to happen to Karnataka cricket. It is a great opportunity for young cricketers who dream of playing a bigger grade of cricket, which they get it through KPL."

"The intensity of the game, the pressure involved, the situations aid the players and mould them into better players as they assimilate how to handle things. They become more proficient and competent. Yes, it is true that we do not have a star player like we had Karun Nair last year and Manish Pandey a few years ago; but this young team has the potential. And also, most of the star players like them aren't available as they are busy with national duties and a few are representing India A-Team."

On being asked about bidding for Amit Verma for a huge sum of Rs.7.6 lakh, Coach Murali said, "Amit Verma is a multi-dimensional player. We were really adamant in the auctions to get him onboard. He adds three perspectives into the team — he is a leg-spinner, a proper T20 batsman and also a left-handed batsman. Leg spinners are the biggest commodity to any team. They are most effective, especially in T20s and Amit Verma will fulfil that role too. And having a left-handed batsman in the top order is an added advantage. When we won the KPL Trophy in 2014, Amit Verma was an integral part of our success story. He understands the value and culture of Mysuru Warriors."

T-20 is the way to go: Mentor Venkatesh Prasad

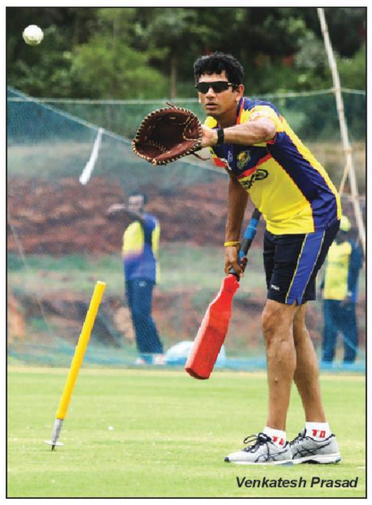
With former Indian Cricketer Venkatesh Prasad being roped in as their Team Mentor, Mysuru Warriors will be eager to learn the skills and knowledge about the game from him.

Venkatesh Prasad, who was an integral part of India's new ball attack, was well-known for his ability to swing the ball both ways and make life difficult for the batsman. His presence in the dressing room will be a great opportunity for the youngsters to absorb his experience and knowledge.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Venkatesh Prasad or 'Venky' as he was fondly known says, "Mysuru is an amazing city. My father is from Mysuru and I have relatives here. So, I definitely have a certain connect to the city. It's good to be working with Mysuru Warriors as they are extremely professional. Their work ethics is fantastic and the whole family is behind the team. This team has been the champions once and it is an honour for me to be associated with them."

"The team is very talented and has an excellent support staff led by Coach RX Murali. My job becomes simpler. I try to bring my experience which I have gained over the years as a player, administrator, selector, coach of the Indian team and pass it on to the youngsters. In future, a few guys from Mysuru Warriors may play for the IPL teams and even the Indian team. So, it is important to guide them. That is what I'm trying to do. My sharing of experience does not limit to the players alone, it also extends to the coaching staff on how to handle things, get a player in good space for him to perform etc."

Mentor Venkatesh Prasad's experience will be a motivating factor for the boys in yellow.



Venkatesh Prasad

On being asked about KPL being a platform to nurture local talent, he says, "It is very good. Now T-20 is the way to go. But I would definitely like to see a lot of them not just play the shorter format, but also learn from it, improve their game and escalate the skills into the longer format. For me the real cricket is the longer format — 3-day game, 4-day game or a 5-day game. But KPL is definitely a good platform, because with this sort of format (T-20), there is so much of franchise that a lot of players are getting opportunities. From here players can be groomed and nurtured, who can play well for the State.

The Warriors indulge in a light warm up session with their Mentor Venky.

Coach RX Murali in discussion with the boys.

is an emotion
Owner Arjun Ranga

Speaking about Cycle Pure Agarbathies' constant contribution towards sports and its promotion, Arjun Ranga, Owner of Mysuru Warriors and Managing Director of Cycle Pure Agarbathies, said, "We like to do activities that unite the nation. Cricket definitely is a sport that unites India. Mysuru Warriors is an emotion and a team for the city. Being born and brought up here in Mysuru, I want to nurture talents in the city. Through this team, the city unites in cricket."

He adds, "The Talent Hunt is a KSCA (Karnataka State Cricket Association) initiative. They have made it mandatory for every team to have two people from the local catchment area. The catchment areas for us were Mysuru, Mandya, Chamarajanagar and Kodagu. We conduct two Talent Hunt programmes every year for recognising and developing talent. KPL is a great platform of exposure for the players. They are introduced to white ball cricket, playing under lights and with fans watching all around and with the match being telecast on TV, the pressure is immense. Real champions emerge only when put under pressure. This is a mini IPL (Indian Premier League) for the State."

'I was waiting to come back to Mysuru Warriors' Leg-spinner Amit Verma

With the team getting back the services of experienced Amit Verma, who also played a match-winning knock of 59 in their seven-wicket win over Bellary Tuskers in their opening match in this year's KPL campaign in Hubballi, the Warriors team will aim to carry their form into the last leg of the tournament.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, the leg-break bowler Amit Verma, said, "I'm happy to be back with Mysuru Warriors again. Arjun Sir and family have been very nice and kind to me. I was waiting to come back and play for Mysuru Warriors since 2014. Me and the team have been working really hard to win the Cup again. The team looks very solid with a nice blend of youngsters and seniors with good experience and a good support and coaching staff. We also enjoy the comfort of having all-rounders in our squad, who are very important in T-20 format. Their role is vital as they bat and bowl equally well and fill in the slots of two different roles. Leg-spinners play a huge impact in this brand of cricket. The 8 overs of leg-spin bowling between me and Kushal Wadhwani will be very crucial. Leg-spinners contain the batsmen, put brakes on the run rate and produce wickets."

'KPL is the biggest platform to showcase talent' Captain J. Suchith

Captain J. Suchith trying one of his variations.

Jagadeesha Suchith, Captain, Mysuru Warriors, said, "The T20 format is quite challenging. The quality and brand of cricket has escalated. The knuckle balls, the back of the hand deliveries, the slow bouncers, yorkers and variations have all transformed the game completely. The batsmen have turned innovative to get runs. Many players who played KPL have now been recognised and roped into IPL too. It is the biggest platform to showcase talent. Karnataka cricketers are getting better every year. About 12 to 13 players from the domestic structure of Karnataka are now a part of IPL too. Our team has a lot of depth with good, experienced players. Most of them have been a part of KPL for more than 3 to 4 seasons. Each one has won crucial matches for their teams and some have also won the trophy. Their experience will come in handy at the later stage of the tournament."

Suchith has been a part of Mysuru Warriors since the team became a part of KPL in 2014. Commenting on him being given the role of the Captain this season, Suchith says, "Being from Mysuru, it is a proud moment for me and it is a dream come true to lead my side. I would like to thank the management for having faith and belief in me and giving me the responsibility."

Just like the Men in Yellow (Chennai Super Kings), who emerged Champions in this year's IPL (Indian Premier League), the young Yellow Warriors from Mysuru Warriors will aim to make it big this season in KPL. Probably, the Royal City is going to be jumping in unison celebrating the yellow storm after the Battle Royale. [Turn to Page-18 for the Team]

Dasara High-Power committee to meet in Mysuru on Aug. 28

H.D. Kumaraswamy

G.T. Devegowda

Mysuru, Aug. 25 (MTY& BCT)- This time, the Dasara High-Power Committee meeting will be held in Mysuru on Aug. 28 at D.C. Office. The meeting will be chaired by Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy. This was disclosed to Star of Mysore this morning by Higher Education Minister G.T. Devegowda, who is also the Mysuru District Minister.

The meeting, all these years held in Bengaluru, will be organised this time in Mysuru as Kumaraswamy will visit city to attend the 103rd Jayanthi celebrations of Sri Shivarathri Rajendra Swamiji at Suttur Mutt on Aug. 28. Vice-President M. Venkaiah Naidu will inaugurate the celebrations and Governor Vajubhai Rudabhai Vala will preside.

At that meeting, it will be decided if Dasara 2018 will be a grand affair as planned earlier or a low-key affair due to natural calamity in Kodagu. District Minister, Tourism Minister S.R. Mahesh, Kannada and Culture Minister Jaimala will attend the meeting along with a host of top-level officers and representatives from Mysuru, Mandya and Chamarajanagar, the Minister said.

On Gajapayana, the march of elephants to Mysuru from the jungle camps to participate in Dasara, the Minister said that the Dasara High-Power Committee will decide on the date. In all probability, the meeting will give a green signal for the Gajapayana on Aug. 29 as any postponement of the date will shorten the training period for the elephants to participate in Vijayadashami procession.

Dasara 2018 commences on Oct. 10 and the Jamboo Savari will be held on October 19, on Vijayadashami Day. The elephants need at least one-and-a-half months of training for the grand event and will need to be fed and well-trained for them to bear the strenuous training regime.

Mysuru Deputy Conservator of Forests (Wildlife) Sidramappa Chalkapure told SOM that they were ready to bring the elephants from various elephant camps in Kodagu. As soon as the Gajapayana date is announced, we will bring the elephants. It is mandatory to obtain the green signal from the Dasara High-Power Committee, he said. In all, 12 elephants will arrive for this year's Dasara. In the first batch, Arjuna, who will carry the Golden Howdah, Balarama, Drona, Abhimanyu, Chaitra and Varalakshmi, will arrive in the city. In the second batch, Dhananjaya, Vikram, Gopi, Gopalaswamy, Cauvery and Vijaya will arrive.

Realising that the Matadhipathis needed an understanding of both the traditional and modern outlook, Sri Shivaratheeshwara Gurukul' was set up in Mysuru in 1951, he added.

JSS Institutions' solar power generation

The JSS Institutions has taken all steps to install solar panels on all its buildings to generate electricity.

Low key celebrations

Earlier, JSS Mahavidyapeetha Secretary Manjunath said that the Jayanthi celebration this year has been scaled down with only the celebrations limited to service activities. Also the two-month programme following the Jayanthi celebrations will not be there. Five Pourakarmikas in fray

Mysuru, Aug.25 (MK&DM)- Pourakarmikas of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC), who played a key role in the city getting the 'Cleanest City' tag for two successive terms, are now trying their hand in politics, with five of them contesting the Aug.31 MCC polls from different parties.

R. Pooja is contesting on a BJP ticket from Ward 32 (Ghousianagar 'A' Block), while R. Subramani is contesting as BJP candidate from Ward 39 (Gayatripuram 1st Stage); R. Shantamma Vadivelu as BJP candidate (Ward 62 - Vishveswaranagar); K. Nagarathna on a Congress ticket from Ward 62 and H.S. Vasanthi as JD(S) candidate (Ward 63 - J.P. Nagar).

All the contesting Pourakarmikas are of the opinion that becoming a Corporator will help them in addressing civic issues and as well as the problems being faced by Pourakarmikas.

The candidates, who are civic workers themselves, have a deeper understanding of drainage, sanitation and other such civic issues. The candidates believe that they can do justice to their job if elected as a Corporator, as it would give them an official platform to raise issues concerning the city and find solutions for the problems being faced by Pourakarmikas.

BJP candidate from Ward 62 R. Shantamma Vadivelu says that her first priority would be to find long lasting solutions for the problems being faced by Pourakarmikas. Listing out her priorities, she said that pothole-free roads, development of parks, scientific disposal of wastes and infrastructure development in the Ward should be taken up first.

Pointing out that her mother-in-law had worked as an MCC Pourakarmika for over 15 years, she said that she was very much hopeful of winning as the voters are going to bless her.

Another Pourakarmika R. Subramani, who is contesting on a BJP ticket from Ward 39, says that he worked as a Pourakarmika for 32 years, before he quit the job, disappointed over non-regularisation of his service.

Expressing regret over the way the Pourakarmikas are being looked upon by some, he said that he has entered politics with a dream of making a mark in public life.

Pointing out that there are many shelterless people in the Ward, Subramani said that building houses for them would be among his first priorities.

Corporation polls, a spring board for candidates to make it to Legislature

Shankarlingegowda Vasu Tanveer Sait Somashekar L. Nagendra G.T. Devegowda Puttarangashetty

Mysuru, Aug.25 (RKB&DM)- Even as the city is voting on Aug.31 to elect new Corporators of MCC, an insight into the earlier polls has thrown light on how several MLAs, past and present, made it to the Legislature after contesting the MCC polls.

H. Kempegowda, B.K. Puttaiah, B.N. Kengegowda, H.S. Shankarlingegowda, Vasu, Tanveer Sait, M.K. Somashekar and L. Nagendra are among those who made it to the Legislature Assembly after winning the MCC polls. Also, Ministers G.T. Devegowda and Puttarangashetty, who were earlier ZP members, before they contested Assembly polls and won. Current KR MLA S.A. Ramdas of the BJP too had unsuccessfully contested the MCC polls once in the past.

When Mysuru was a Municipality earlier, K. Puttaswamy, who was a Councillor, successfully contested the Assembly polls and even became a Minister for a short period.

H. Kempegowda, B.K. Puttaiah and B.N. Kengegowda who had served as the then CITB (now MUDA) Chairman, went on to become Legislators. After Mysuru Municipality turned into Mysuru City Corporation, H.S. Shankarlingegowda (late), Vasu, Tanveer Sait, M.K. Somashekar and L. Nagendra, all having been Corporators, went on to become MLAs. Among the five, Shankarlingegowda and Vasu had served as Mayors. While Shankarlingegowda got elected from Chamaraja Assembly segment for four successive terms (1994 to 2013) on a BJP ticket, Vasu was elected from the same Constituency as a Congress candidate in 2013 before he lost to L. Nagendra of the BJP in the May 2018 Assembly polls.

M.K. Somashekar got elected from KR Constituency for two terms — First in 2004 on a JD(S) ticket and for the second time in 2013, on a Congress ticket.

Tanveer Sait, who succeeded his father Azeez Sait, has been elected five times from NR Assembly Constituency without a break since 2002, when he first contested on a Congress ticket, in the By-election that was necessitated by the death of his father Azeez Sait. Current MLA L. Nagendra of the BJP, was elected as an MCC Corporator thrice earlier. He had also served as MUDA Chairman when the BJP Government was in power.

SBM Manju is official JD(S) candidate for Ward No. 6

Mysuru, Aug.25 (KS)- The problem pertaining to the official JD(S) candidate for MCC Ward No. 6 has been solved with the JD(S) party announcing the name of SBM Manju as its official candidate.

SBM Manju

The problem was created as the party had issued 'B' Forms to SBM Manju and B. Madhu.

SBM Manju had first filed his nomination paper and the party has officially announced his name as the candidate for Ward No.6. Manju had earlier won from Ward No. 32 which had fallen vacant following the cancellation of the membership of former Corporator C. Madesh and Manju had won from the Ward from JD(S) ticket and was Corporator for more than a year.

But after the delimitation and reservation of Wards, Manju is now contesting from Ward No. 6 (Gokulam).

Flood damage may slash India's coffee output by 20%

It will take at least 25 years for Kodagu planters to regain their estates, says Coffee Board Chairman

Bengaluru, Aug.25- India's coffee production in 2018/19 is likely to fall by at least one-fifth from a year ago as floods in Kodagu and Kerala have damaged most of the cultivating areas. This will delay exports too, industry officials said. Some of the worst flooding in India in a century killed hundreds of people in Kerala and Karnataka, both of which account for more than 90% of the country's total coffee production.

Speaking to reporters, Coffee Board Chairman M.S. Bhojegowda said that in Kodagu, wherever the estates have been damaged, it will take at least 25 years for the crop to give yield again. Thousands of hectares of coffee plantations in Makkandur, Haleri, Galibeedu, Hattihole, First and Second Monnangeri, Jodupala, Thantipaala, Meghathalu, Mukkodlu, Soorlabbi, Hachchinadu, Garwale, Jodupala, Shirangala, Kaluru, Galibeedu, First and Second Monnangeri, Muvathoklu, Katakeri, Makkandur, Yemmethaalu and Meghathalu have been washed away due to landslides, he added.

In all these areas, coffee plants have to be replanted and the first challenge will be to set right the soil which is now filled with red mud and slush. "The top layer has been washed away and it will be an arduous task for the coffee planters to get their estates back in shape," he said.

"Earlier we were expecting better crop. Now we are expecting at least 20% drop in the production," Ramesh Rajah, President of the Coffee Exporters' Association of India said. "Coffee plantations need to reconstruct. It will take years," he added.

The severe crop loss was reported in the coffee-growing regions of Kodagu in Karnataka and Wayanad in Kerala, while the Chikkamagalur and Hassan districts in Karnataka also reported damage on limited scale.

In 2017/18 marketing year that ended on Sept.30, India produced 3,16,000 tonnes coffee, including 2.21,000 tonnes of Robusta and 95,000 tonnes of Arabica, according to Coffee Board.

Floods have badly damaged infrastructure, especially roads connecting to ports, said M.M. Chengappa, the former Chairman of Karnataka Planters' Association (KPA), who still operates a coffee farm in Kodagu.

Exports of around 20,000 tonnes have been delayed for two weeks and the quantity is unlikely to be shipped in next fortnight as roads connecting ports to the hilly coffee-growing region have been washed away, he said.

More rain expected in Kodagu

Bengaluru, Aug.25- Karnataka State Natural Disaster Monitoring Centre (KSNDMC) has warned of more rains in Kodagu and Malnad regions for the next 48 hours. It will rain anywhere between 30 to 35 mm rainfall.

"Due to likely development of low pressure area over north Bay of Bengal on Aug.26, enhancement of rainfall over coastal and Malnad is very likely," the KSNDMC communication said.

Nationalised bank loans waived, says HDK

HDK

Bengaluru, Aug. 25 (KMS& BCT)- The H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) Government gave a Varamahalakshmi festival gift to farmers and agricultural labourers yesterday, fulfilling one of its biggest promises made during the Assembly elections by deciding to waive off farm loans from nationalised banks.

The government also decided to promulgate a Debt Relief Ordinance to give relief to farm labourers. The twin decisions of the government will benefit every BPL family in one way or the other. Over 23 lakh farming families having loan accounts in nationalised banks are set to benefit.

Addressing reporters along with Deputy CM Dr. G. Parameshwara after the State Cabinet meeting yesterday, HDK said, "The State Government will clear total unpaid crop loans amounting to Rs.30,163 crore in four yearly instalments. This sum includes Rs.7,419 crore interest too."

The banks, he said, had agreed to issue loan-free certificates to farmers and provide them with fresh loans. He added that as promised, Rs.25,000 of crop loans per family will be waived. "In total, Rs.16.94 lakh farmer loans have to be repaid, while as many as 6.27 lakh farmers have taken fresh loans this year," he explained.

KSIC employees oppose move to sell silk sarees at Rs. 4,500

Government would go ahead with its plan of selling sarees at rebate once the model code of conduct comes to an end, says Sericulture Minister S.R. Mahesh

Mysuru, Aug.25- Strongly opposing the plans of Tourism and Sericulture Minister S.R. Mahesh's plan to sell Mysuru Silk Sarees at discounted price of Rs.4,500, the KSIC (Karnataka Silk Industries Corporation) staff staged a protest in front of silk-weaving Factory here on Thursday.

Claiming that the Silk Factory will face serene loss if silk sarees were sold at subsidised rates, the employees said that the Government should take the responsibility if the KSIC unit runs into loss.

Pointing out that the Government has decided to sell silk sarees worth Rs.12,400 at Rs.5,000 and sarees worth Rs.9,040 at Rs.4,500, they said it was not advisable to sell the sarees at discounted rates when the prices of raw materials and manufacturing cost have risen sharply in recent times.

Urging the Government to drop the proposal, the employees threatened to stage an indefinite stir if the Government went ahead with its initiative of offering silk sarees at Rs.4,500.

AITUC, CITU, SC/ST Employees Welfare Association Office-bearers led the protest.

Reacting to the stir by KSIC staff at Mysuru against the Government's decision to sell silk sarees at a discounted price of Rs.4,500, Sericulture Minister S.R. Mahesh said that he came to know of the stir only on Thursday evening.

Speaking to SOM on Friday, Mahesh said that there were six employee Associations in the KSIC and only some of them staged a demonstration yesterday. Anticipating the staff's opposition to his plans of offering silk sarees at Rs.4,500, Mahesh said that he had spoken to them, during which they had agreed to the plan. But he does not know what transpired later, he added.

Pointing out that with the model code of conduct in force for Urban Local Body (ULB) polls, the KSIC had sought clearance from the DC for the sale of silk sarees at discounted prices, Mahesh said that, however, the election authorities refused to give clearance citing model code of conduct. Asserting that the Government would go ahead with its plan of selling sarees at rebate once the model code of conduct comes to an end, the Minister clarified that the State Government has taken a decision in this regard and there was no question of going back.
